GCC hereby agrees to pay the Referrer the below commission for all loans introduced and settled through GCC. This amount can be varied at any time given one (1) weeks notice in writing from GCC. This document does not create an employment or agent's agreement, and all documents and matters pertaining to a client and or GCC's methodologies and the like are confidential to GCC. It is your legal right to disclose all commissions and fees being received from GCC to the client, together with being your personal responsibility to disclose any and all commissions and fees received from GCC to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). This agreement can be terminated immediately by GCC and any commissions forfeited if you are engaging in any illegal or deceptive activities and or giving misleading information, and or if you become bankrupt or insolvent and unable to legally trade in business. This agreement can also be terminated by either party given one week's notice in writing. All commissions will be posted on or around the 25th of the month after settlement of the transaction has occurred.
